SCOPE AND CONTENT:
The collection is an artificial collection documenting a narrow scope of counseling services at Elmira College and is primarily comprised of information around the formation of the Counseling Center in 1976. The collection contains clippings, manuals, correspondence, proposals and brochures.

HISTORICAL NOTE:

In 1976, the Elmira College Counseling Center was approved. The faculty approved the appointment of a Director of the Counseling Center, David Mandelbaum, on April 21, 1981. Doug Couchon was hired the following year and remained the director of the Counseling Services until 2014. Since the early 2000’s, the counseling center was staffed with contracted psychologists. This practice changed in 2016. Kevin Murphy accepted the role of head of counseling services. In 2018, as the head of counseling services, Kevin Murphy accepted the additional role of Associate Dean of Students.
